

OpenBUB.gov.ph

OpenBUB.gov.ph provides access to data on projects and programs implemented by local government units across the Philippines. Through this, the people have access to primary data on the implementation of projects including the project status, location, implementing agency and budget.

FEATURES

View geo-referenced projects by location or type

View projects and their details

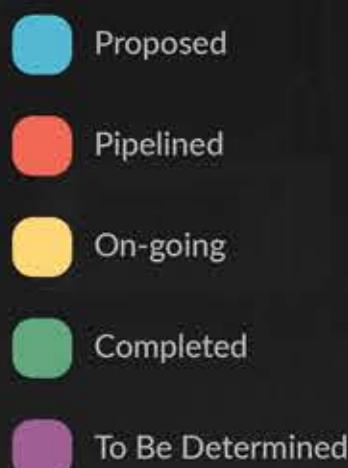

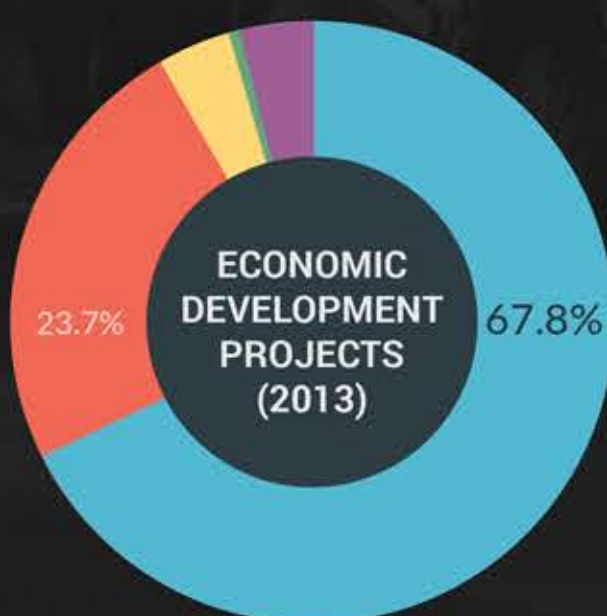

Use filters to efficiently search for specific projects

DID YOU KNOW?

Bottom-up Budgeting is an approach that empowers local sectors to connect and engage with the government in designing the national budget which was first adopted in 2013 by the Aquino administration.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

was the implementing agency with the most projects in 2014, with a total of 5,281 projects by the end of the year.

OpenBUB hosts data from 20 different implementing agencies in the Philippines

ARMM-Office of the Regional Governor
Bureau of Fisheries and Aquatic Resources
Department of Budget and Management
National Anti-Poverty Commission
National Irrigation Administration
National Economic Development Authority
Department of Agrarian Reform
Department of Agriculture
Department of Education
Department of Energy

Department of Labor and Employment
Department of Health
Department of Environment and Natural Resources
Department of Social Welfare and Development
Department of Interior and Local Government
Department of Tourism
Department of Trade and Industry
National Electrification Administration
Philippine Health Insurance Corporation
Technical Education and Skills Development Authority